World War II's island hopping campaign put the Marine Corps' new amphibious doctrine to the test.

ABOUT THE COVER

This month's cover is a composite of images created by Midjourney, an AI image generator. We asked for realistic pictures of an F-35C against a digital background, then combined the best elements of several. The representation of the F-35 is good but flawed; the engine outlet, for example, is inaccurate. See "Need to Know," pp. 8-9, for more on this.
